I suffered with catarrh for many years and got so deaf that I went about my Museums, Circus and Theatre giving directions and doing business with a big ear-trumpet at the side of my head. It was very annoying to me and amusing to those who saw me. By the advice of physicians I sought the climate of the Sunny South. In six months I could see no change and was discouraged. At this time I began using Chalmer's English Catarrh Cure. In three months I felt a new man, in six months my hearing returned. I refused to give a testimonial at once for the English Catarrh Cure, as I feared it was not permanent. But a year and more has now passed, and I can now heartily indorse Chalmer's English Catarrh Cure for the cure of catarrh and deafness.

THURSDAY..... MARCH 14, 1889.

After Black's Scalp.

The fight for Pension Commissioner Black's scalp has commenced in earnest, and the claims of several applicants have been formally laid before the President. The Indiana delegation called in a body and presented ex-Congressman Johnson, who was defeated for re-election last November. His war record, his service to the party as a member of the Committee on Elections and all his other qualities were fully set forth. He is handicapped to a certain extent by the fact that he lost neither an arm nor a leg, nor can he pose as a battle scarred veteran. Nearly all his competitors for the Commissionership have honorable scars to show that they saw active service during the war. The Hoosier delegation made a strong appeal for their man, but they are by no means confident of success. Corporal Tanner, whose principal backing comes from New York and the G. A. R, generally, is backed by the knowing ones as a sure winner. He has lost both legs from the knee down and his selection, it is claimed, would be received with great enthusiasm among the soldier element throughout the country. Ohio, with its characteristic modesty, presents four candidates for this office, with ex-Congressman Brown at their head. He is a one-legged soldier, and his friends claim that Ohio will forget her disappointment at not getting representation in the Cabinet if he is placed at the head of the Pension office. Representative McKinley and several members of the Ohio delegation have put themselves on record at the White House in his behalf. Iowa presents the name of Private Vaughn, a one-armed private soldier, whose war record and acknowledged ability is commended on every side. His friends are pushing his claim with great vigor, but it is understood that they are prepared to compromise upon the Deputy Commissionership. There are several other other aspirants in the field, but at the White House it is thought that the race is between the four gentlemen named. The President has heard delegations in behalf of each of the candidates, but he gave them no intimation of what his decision will be.

Wants to Be Solicitor General.

The Michigan delegation has presented the name of Henry M. Duffield, of Detroit, for solicitor general, and they are very confident of his appointment. Colonel Duffield has a military record and an eminent standing at the bar, and was the manger of General Alger's canvass at the Chicago convention. It is known that President Harrison desires to recognize Alger in some way by the appointment of one of his intimate friends, and Duffield's name was suggested on that account. President Harrison told the Michigan people that he knew Colonel Duffield, and thought very well of him, but that there could be no change in the office of solicitor general until after the disposition of certain cases in the United States Supreme Court. He promises, however, to take the matter under consideration and asked the Michigan Senators to call again in a few weeks. It is supposed that Senator Sherman will oppose the confirmation of Duffield, in case he is nominated, for the same reason that he objected to Alger's appointment in the Cabinet, for Duffield was the active manager for the Michigan candidate at the Chicago convention, and is charged with having distributed his campaign funds. It was with Duffield that Sherman had some spicy correspondence shortly after the convention.

Probably Ministers to London and Brussels will be appointed within a few days. For the English Mission Whitelaw Reid is as good as chosen, and his name may go to the Senate within a day or two. It is expected that the remaining important missions will be left undisturbed until April, as the President does not wish to move in haste in this, one of the most important of his duties, and one over which it is now thoroughly understood he will exercise close personal supervision.

Ex-Governor Porter, who nominated Harrison at Chicago, has been appointed Minister to Italy. Gov. Porter has a daughter on whom his affections have centered since Mrs. Porter's death, and the daughter is so strongly inclined toward art, for which she has decided talent, that the Italian mission was Porter's own choosing.

William Walter Phelps is without doubt solid for the German mission, and is already deeply absorbed in the study of the Samoan complications, preparatory to attending the conference with his old friend Bismarck.

President Harrison and three members of the Cabinet—Windom, Rusk and Noble—are natives of Ohio. The Buckeyes have not lost their birthright by any means.

POLICY OF THE TREASURY.

The Financial Outlook Under the new Republican Regime.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 6.—[Correspondence New York Evening Post.]—Well-informed Treasury officers do not believe that there is anything in the present financial situation to excite apprehension by the change of Administration. The improbability of an extra session of Congress affords additional assurance that there need be no alarm. The absence of an extra session eliminates an uncertain feature of the situation and makes the outlook simple and more easily predicted. The revenue question may be considered settled for at least ten months; the Treasury Department will know what it will have to contend with, and will undoubtedly adapt itself to the condition and meet it as ably and as intelligently as possible.

THE ACCUMULATION OF SURPLUS.

The condition, of course, will be accumulating revenues and the ability of the Government to disburse them. The surplus to-day is $72,997,428 including fractional silver and minor coin. Secretary Fairchild estimates that, including this amount, his successor will have about $150,000,000 available for the purchase of bonds between the 1st of March and Jan. 1. The incoming Administration stands pledged to the purchase of bonds with the surplus, and there is no reason to doubt its disposition to prevent unnecessary accumulations in the Treasury by such expenditures, no matter how high (within reasonable limits, of course) the price of bonds may go.

GOVERNMENT BOND PURCHASES.

The only question of importance is whether the incoming Secretary can buy sufficient bonds at reasonable prices. Judging from the freedom with which 4½s have been offered lately it is a fair assumption to say that he can. Obviously it is to the interest of holders of 4½ per cents to surrender their bonds, and, in view of their near approach to maturity, it is but reasonable to suppose that the Secretary will encourage the buying of these in preference to the 4s. With this prospect it is interesting to note that there are now outstanding of this class of bonds only $162,000,000 as against $228,000,000 last April, when Secretary Fairchild began his purchases. Of these $65,000,000 are accounted for, being held as security for circulation and for deposits of public moneys. The Secretary has been able to purchase about $10,000 000 of this class of bonds during the last month—in spite of the fact that it was the eve of another Administration avowedly more in favor of the purchase of bonds. The purchases have been at a rate which has realized only about 1¼ per cent. to the Government. The bonds could not go much higher, however, and make it profitable for the Government to buy them. If the hundred millions of 4½s outside the banks, are held chiefly by saving banks, trustees, etc., as they are supposed to be, it is quite reasonable to suppose that for the next five or six months at least the Secretary can secure as many 4½s as he desires to buy, The effect of the preference shown for 4½s, however, will probably be to induce investors to exchange this class of bonds to 4s, which have so much longer to run, and this may have a noticeable influence in stiffening the price of the latter.

FOUR PER CENT BONDS

Should there be any difficulty, however, about securing liberal offers of 4½s, which may be doubted, the Secretary will have recourse to the purchase of 4s. Of these there is outstanding $681,000,000, of which only $133,500,000 is held by the banks as security for circulation and public deposits. Of course it is impossible to predict to what extent these bonds will be offered, but there is advantage to the Government in the fact that there are so many outstanding, which will make it more difficult to "corner" them should any one attempt it, and thereby try to dictate the price which the Government shall pay. At any rate there is no reason to doubt the Government's willingness to make pretty liberal disbursements if the needs of the financial situation should threaten it. A fact to be taken into consideration in connection with future bond purchases, is that of the $167,000,000 of bonds now held by National banks as security for circulation and deposits of public money about $91,000,000 cannot be obtained by the Government, this amount being necessary for the banks to hold in order to continue their existence as National banks.

WITHDRAWAL OF DEPOSITS.

One of the first acts of the incoming Administration will probably be to withdraw a part of the money now in public depositories. It is hard to see how, in view of the ante-election utterances of both the President-elect and his leading party associates, the next Secretary of the Treasury can do otherwise than withdraw these funds. This step can be taken, however, without causing any shock. Secretary Fairchild estimates that it could easily be done within two months. The amount in the public depositories now is about $49,000,000. It will be necessary the judgment of Senator Allison and others to maintain a depository balance of from $20,000,000 to $30,000,000, so that the withdrawal would only affect $20,000.000 or $25,000,000. This withdrawal, moreover, would set free just so many more bonds.

Secretary Fairchild has expended since April 17 last over $140,000,000 for bonds. Secretary Windom may have to pay more for those which he buys, but there is no reason to apprehend that he will have to pay exorbitant prices for what is necessary to buy.

CONTINUANCE OF PRESENT METHODS.

As to the method of purchasing which the new Secretary will adopt, it is believed that he will continue, for a time at least, the method inaugurated by Secretary Fairchild. This has given such excellent results that there seems to be no reason for departing from it. Certainly nothing would be gained by naming a certain price at which bonds would be accepted, and a failure to secure offers would in that case embarrass the Secretray in his future operations, Neither would secret purchases by contract with private parties be advisable or popular in the present emergency. So that it is reasonable to suppose that the daily offerings will be allowed to continue. W.

The President yesterday sent the following nominations to the Senate: Eugene Schuyler, of New York, to be Assistant Secretary of State, vice George I. Rives, resigned; Walker Blaine, of Maine, to be Examiner of Claims for the Department of State, vice Wharton, deceased; Cyrus Bussey, of New York City, to be Assistant Secretary of the Interior, vice David, resigned.

The falling off in the consumption of iron in the country has been most marked for the last six months of 1888. The anticipated revival for 1889 has not as yet set in, and this may explain to some extent the recent failure of two large iron firms in the country.

Ex-President Cleveland has accepted an invitation of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick to respond to one of the toasts at the annual dinner of the society on Saturday night.

The American people have one thing for which they may well feel grateful Congress will never again be disgraced by the presence of Riddleberger, of Virginia.

A Curious Mine.

Some very beautiful specimens of ore from the Eira mine, at Tuscarora, are on exhibition at the Depot Hotel The Eira, so the JOURNAL is informed, is the mine in which George J. Smith and Hugh W. Kerr recently uncovered a large body of rich ore, which is a wonder to the expert gold hunter or geologist. The hanging wall of this natural treasure vault is covered by an apron of mineral which extends over its entire surface from top to bottom, and from end to end. In thickness it ranges from one to four feet. This apron of mineral is in some places frozen to the wall, and in others it hangs down over its face in huge slabs of rolled gold and silver. The mine has been developed to a considerable extent, and 117 tons of high grade ore already shipped It is estimated there are $30 000 in sight Negotiations for the purchase of the property are now going on between the owners and certain Reno persons

Reno's Postmaster.

Senator Stewart yesterday telegraphed as follows.

To Hon Wm. Thompson, or H H Beck, or W O H. Martin, or R. L. Fulton, or W M Boardman.

Who do you want appointed Postmaster? Send on your petition.

WM. M STEWART

Immediately Messrs Thompson and Boardman commenced to circulate a petition for N W Roff There are already petitions on file in Washington favoring H. P. Kraus (Nasty), Lisle Jamison and J. Howard Nasby's petition was signed by nearly all the business men of Reno, and the State officers also signed one for him. Lisle Jamison also had a good one, and so did Howard. There is still room for several new Richmonds.

Coal, Coal, Coal.

Pleasant Valley coal is the best and cheapest fuel in the market 3 tons of P. V. coal equals five tons Rocky Mountain coal, by actual test. No slate or clinkers. One ton P V coal equals 3 cords common pine wood Give it a trial and be convinced. Leave orders with or enquire of H. Sample, Depot Hotel or coal house, or at Nasbys, or of Phil Allgier, the drayman.

NORTHERN HUMBOLDT.

Water and Feed Scarce, but Light Losses of Stock.

Col. J. A Hardin is in from an extended tour over his ranges in the northern part of Humboldt county. He reports feed scarce and water scarce, the small springs having dried up and the larger springs failing He says the loss of stock from winter causes is very light. At present some old cows that get mired in mudholes, where they try to get water, are the only ones that are dying, and the losses are lighter than they have been for years He says that unless rain and plenty of it comes soon there will be no feed whatever for stock late in the season, and herds will have to be driven to other pastures to prevent them from starving to death.

Greenville Railroad Survey.

The Greenville Bulletin says.

The railroad surveying party in charge of Mr. Habersham, took up the survey where they left it last fall, beginning at station 1,700, which is 8 73 miles from Greenville, and came down Wolf Creek, to the Hathaway saw mill where the party are camped. The grade to that point is very heavy, being about three per cent., as nearly as we have been able to find out On Saturday the line was extended down the valley to the Forgay ranch. It crosses the old brick yard site, now owned by R L. McGill, passes between the office of Judge Emmons and Pierce's tinshop, on Ann St, runs diagonally across the vacant lots back of Wm. Walraven's to Main St., just missing the south-east corner of the Hose Co 's house, thence across Main to the east side of Pine St, passing through the Kruger ranch, and about fifty feet to the left of the hot springs. On Monday, the line was extended around the point near the old Becraft ranch, and toward Crescent.

The stations are 100 feet apart. Station No 2191 is in Main street, in front of the drug store, a distance of 40 92 miles from the point of beginning, west of the Mountain Meadows, near the head of Susan river.

Leveling from the barometrical station, at the starting point, to Greenville, makes the altitude of this town 3,492 feet, or about 2,200 feet lower than station 1.

Austin's Silver Bullion.

In response to the request of the Salt Lake Chamber of Commerce, the Austin Reveille requested G. H W. Crockett, agent of Wells, Fargo & Co 's Express, to make out for it the total amount of silver bullion shipped from his office since 1865, and here it is, taken from his books:

Amount forwarded from Austin, Nevada, from 1865 to 1888, inclusive:

|---|---|
| Silver Bullion . . | $24,929,699 92 |
| Weight in pounds ..... | 1,707,794 |

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle feb 21-eow-1

WHAT ON EARTH

Is the reason people will not connect or do not, see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by cheap John Houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BIGGS' BLOOD PURIFIE AND BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work will cost you nothing

OSBURN & SHOEMAKER, Druggists.

When Baby was sick,
We gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child,
She cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss,
She clung to Castoria.
When she had Children,
She gave them Castoria.

THE OLD RELIABLE FURNITURE HOUSE OF John Breuner is well worthy of note, and we take pleasure in devoting to it due space and attention. Mr. Breuner has been engaged in the business for thirty-three years and conducts one of the largest business houses in California. He manufactures and deals in all kinds of furniture and bedding, and has established a most enviable celebrity for the excellence of the goods turned out by his house. He carries a very large stock, embracing all grades and kinds of furniture and quotes prices that defy competition. His goods are all first-class, made of the best material and first-class workmanship, and the people cannot find a more advantageous house to deal with. He carries a supply of photographs of all goods, which will be sent free of charges to any address, and by this method people at a distance can select goods at home as well as in person at his house, and may rest assured of being satisfactorily and fairly treated by him. This is a most convenient and pleasant method for those abroad, and we recommend a trial of it.

250 Beautiful Lots For Sale!

A RARE CHANCE FOR INVESTMENT AND A HOME

THE MOST LOVELY PORTION OF RENO.

Facing the Truckee—The Aristocratic Riverside Avenue Driveway—Splendid Sewerage—Healthy Location and Safe From Fire.

The proprietor is now ready to receive proposals for lots in Powning's Addition. The map gives a good idea of the Tract, which is situated between the Central Pacific Railroad and the Truckee River, and commences on the west at a point three blocks distant from Virginia Street, making it the most central and convenient of any portion of the rapidly growing town of Reno. Unlike any other part of the town this Addition faces the beautiful Truckee River and Riverside Avenue is certain to become the fashionable driveway of the country. The streets are 80 feet wide, while Riverside and Keystone Avenues are intended to be 100 feet in width. All alleys are 20 feet wide. The soil is a rich gravelly loam, and susceptible of the highest state of cultivation. Being situated as it is it is more safe from fire than any other section The regular lots are 50x140 feet. The sewerage is perfect.

Before Buying Elsewhere Parties will do Well to Look at These Lots.

RENO

Reno's geographical position is excellent. It is on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, only 154 miles from Sacramento, and 244 miles from San Francisco. It is the terminus of the Virginia and Truckee Railroad running south, and of the Nevada and California Railroad running north. It has two Flouring Mills, Planing Mills, three Nurseries, a Soap Factory, Reduction Works, and other industries. A great Woolen Mill and a Sash, Door, Blind and Box Factory, are about to be established.

Reno has the Bank of Nevada with $300,000 capital, and the First National Bank with $200,000 capital: It has two fine papers in the DAILY and WEEKLY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL and the Daily and Weekly Gazette.

Reno is the natural home of the Alfalfa, and therefore the great cattle headquarters of the State. Here are fed the prime beef for the California market. Reno potatoes are the best in the world, and she also excels in Strawberries and the small fruits. Reno Wheat took the first prize at the great New Orleans Exposition.

The State Fair is always held at Reno.

Reno is the County Seat of Washoe County, the wealthiest county in Nevada.

RENO

Has no equal in Nevada or California for salubrity of climate, wealth of soil, diversity of products and stability. Situated in the very heart of the celebrated Truckee Meadows the future of Reno is assured. Reno is the City of Homes. There is not a house to rent in Reno. New buildings are occupied as fast as erected. Reno has advantages which no other town can equal. The climate is mild and genial in Winter, and even and healthful in Summer. There are no excessively heated or severely cold terms, and while the days may be warm in Summer the nights are deliciously cool; in Winter sleigh-riding is the exception and not the rule.

Facilities for irrigating surpass any in the State, and there is no failure of crops.

Reno has Churches of all denominations, Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls, Mt. St. Mary's Academy, the State University, and splendid Public Schools.

The Reno Water Co. furnishes ample pure, cold water for all purposes. The Reno Electric Light Co.'s electric light system, already well established, is being augmented. The Reno Gas Co. supplies gas for all purposes. The streets of Reno are lighted by electricity.
